

“Geo-Questions”

1. The Red Cross, which has its international headquarters in this country, copied its flag by reversing the colors. Name the country.
2. The world’s most populous country has a flag with a red background and five stars. Name this country.
3. Five red crosses, one large and four small, lying on a white background make up this country’s flag. Name the country.
4. A red disc on a green background makes up the flag of this densely populated South Asian country. Name the country.
5. This country’s flag features eleven alternating red and white stripes and one star on a blue background. Name this African country.

“Geo-Questions”

1. The Red Cross, which has its international headquarters in this country, copied its flag by reversing the colors. Name the country.
2. The world’s most populous country has a flag with a red background and five stars. Name this country.
3. Arabic script and a sword on a background of green make up the flag of this Middle East kingdom. Name this country.
4. Five red crosses, one large and four small, lying on a white background make up this country’s flag. Not used for almost 500 years, this former Soviet Republic adopted the flag in 2004. Name the country.
5. A red disc on a green background makes up the flag of this densely populated South Asian country. Once known as East Pakistan, this country gained independence in 1971. Name the country.
6. Showing its ties to the United States, this country’s flag features eleven alternating red and white stripes and one star on a blue background. Name this African country.
7. This country’s flag features a sun with eight rays. It shares a name with a region in Greece. Name this country.
8. The colors of African unity – red, green, yellow – are seen here on one of the oldest African flags. This country located in the Horn of Africa has been independent for centuries. Name this country.
9. This country once provided cedar timber throughout the Mediterranean region. The cedar tree is a prominent design on its flag. Name this country.
10. This country’s flag features a sphere with several constellations of the Southern Hemisphere. Name this large country.